Ulster County

Sponsored by Cornell University Cooperative
Extension of Ulster County Master Gardener Program

Join the Master Gardeners for a bus trip to the best flower show in the East on Thursday, March 8, 2012

Immerse your Senses in the Beauty of Hawaii at the 2012 Philadelphia Flower Show

From towering waterfalls and waves of orchids, to glowing volcanoes and serene sunsets, the 2012 Philadelphia International Flower Show is an immersion in the dramatic landscapes and tranquil spirit of Hawaii.

Join Cornell Cooperative Extension of Ulster County's (CCEUC) Master Gardener Program as they host their annual bus trip to "The City of Brotherly Love" on Thursday, March 8, 2012 at the Pennsylvania Convention Center.

The buses will load at 6:45am and leave from the MAC Fitness parking lot located in the Kingston Plaza at 7:00am and will return at approximately 9:30pm. Pre-registration is required before Friday, March 2, 2012. The cost is $70 per person which includes transportation and admission to the show. No refunds. This event is a fund raiser for the Master Gardener Program of Ulster County.

Visitors will experience centuries-old traditions at the Hawaiian Village, plants, flowers, traditional foods and items for the home. Sample wines and spirits and indulge in soothing Hawaiian melodies and lush palm trees for a relaxing Garden Tea. Enjoy scrumptious delights as you daydream about island life.

For more information or to register call
Dona Crawford at 845-340-3990 ext. 335.

Deadline for registration is Friday March 2, 2012 - NO REFUNDS
Seats will ONLY be reserved upon receipt of payment.
