Cultural Perspectives on Parenting

Thursdays, October 23 and November 13, 2003, 2:30-5:30 pm

Cornell Cooperative Extension of Ulster County Office
10 Westbrook Lane, Kingston, NY

Program Description

This satellite program will help you understand the influence of culture on parenting and how to use family-centered practices to better support families of diverse cultures. In turn, these families will be better able to meet the developmental needs of their children and build on their families' strengths. Presented by Iowa State University Extension.

Topics and Presenters

October 23: 2:30-5:30 pm

- Understanding and developing cultural competence and using family-centered practices
Rosa Milagros (Amy) Santos, University of Illinois
- The role of culture in parenting and working with families of diverse cultures
William D. Allen, Outreach at Life Innovations, Inc, Minneapolis, MN

November 13: 2:30-5:30 pm

- Research on parent/school involvement including families of three different cultures (Dominican, Portuguese, and Cambodian) and how socio-economics influence parenting
Cynthia Garcia Coll, Brown University, Rhode Island
- Research and practical suggestions for working with Latino youth and their families
Francisco Villarruel, Michigan State University
