Learning to Love Letters at the Little Ones' Library

The Little Ones' Library, and the entire alphabet, bring children a morning of fun when they host A to Z—Come Play With Me on Saturday, April 24, 2004 from 10 am to 12 noon. Spend the morning with your little one using all of your senses to explore the shapes and sounds of the alphabet. There will be games, activities, rhymes and books all designed to help your child learn to love letters, the basic building blocks of words and reading. Young children learn best using all of their senses—we'll send parents home with lots of ideas for using senses for learning at home.

The Little Ones' Library is a special place for little ones, birth through early elementary school, where, together with parents, grandparents, care givers and other caring adults, children travel to new places, meet new friends, snuggle on laps, learn about letters and numbers and colors and animals and trucks, and seashores and farms and feelings and laughter and....oh so many things, through books. Visit the Little Ones' Library. Bring young children. Invite others with children. Residents of the Rondout Valley school district may borrow books to read at home.

Little Ones' Library Hours: Wednesdays, Infant and Toddler Time 9:30-11:30, Storytime at 9:30; - Thursdays and Saturdays, for all ages, 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon, Storytime at 10 am. The Little Ones' Library is located at the Rochester Reformed Church, 5142 Rte. 209, Accord. Established by Cornell Cooperative Extension of Ulster County, with help from other community partners, it provides library experiences for children in the rural Accord/Kerhonkson area. For more information please contact Marie Ulmer at 626-4112 or Sue Matson at 340-3990.
