Controlling Hazardous Air in Your Home

Workshop focuses on eliminating & controlling problems with chemicals, molds & carbon monoxide

Cornell Cooperative Extension of Ulster County hosts Healthy Indoor Air: How to Eliminate & Control Chemicals, Molds & Carbon Monoxide In Your Home on Wednesday, June 23, 2004 from 7 pm to 9 pm at their office located at 10 Westbrook Lane, Kingston. This 2-hour workshop will provide homeowners with essential information on household products such as aerosol spray products, chlorine bleach and paint and their effect on air quality. Methods for controlling mold growth and moisture problems, and information about the dangers of carbon monoxide in the home will also be covered. Instructor Mark Russo is a former contractor who provides maintenance and repair workshops throughout the Hudson Valley and New York City. The fee is $10 and pre-registration by phone is required by Monday, June 21, 2004. Space is limited. Please call Pat Finch, at 340-3990. For more information call June Strand, Nutrition & Family Resource Management Program, 845-340-3990.
