Master Gardener Trip Takes You to Destination Paradise

Take a trip with Cornell Cooperative Extension of Ulster County's Master Gardener Program to the largest flower show in the world; the renown Philadelphia Flower Show, on Wed., March 10, 2004. In celebration of the show's 175th anniversary the largest collection of specimen orchids in North America will on be on display. Destination Paradise, the Show theme, features an expansive look at paradise from a variety of gardening perspectives. The 33-acre Pennsylvania Convention Center filled with floral exhibits, special activities and how-to-do-it demonstrations also offers free culinary events, a Wedding Boutique and the Flower Show Marketplace where gardeners can shop for the most advanced garden equipment, supplies and gifts.

The cost is $55.00 per person, which includes transportation and admittance to the show. Busses will leave from the Kingston Plaza with a stop at the New Paltz Thruway Exit 18 Park & Ride to pick up passengers. Seating is limited. The registration deadline is Friday, February 27, 2004. Please call Barbara, Ag Program Secretary, 340-3990 to receive a registration form or download a registration form from our website: www.cce.cornell.edu/ulster/local_programs1.htm.
