Seventh Annual 4-H Golf Classic Tees off in May

Cornell Cooperative Extension of Ulster County hopes to see you out on the links when it holds its seventh annual 4-H Golf Classic on Thursday, May 19, 2005 at Apple Greens Golf Course in Clintondale, New York. This outing is for everyone...it'll be a great day for golf, food and fun while helping to raise money for the oldest youth organization in the United States. Registration begins at 7:30 a.m. The four-person scramble with a shotgun start will begin at 9:00 a.m. The $75.00 entry fee includes 18 holes of golf with a cart, continental breakfast, snacks on the course, and an awards luncheon following the tournament. There will be a Hole in One competition and prizes awarded for Longest Drive – Men's & Women's; Closest to the Pin; team prizes for first, second and third place and much more.

In 2004, Ulster County 4-H Youth Development reached 1,176 children through one day, special interest, school enrichment & 4-H club experiences. The money raised by this tournament goes directly to program development, scholarships and volunteer recognition, and training. All entry forms and fees must be received at Cornell Cooperative Extension of Ulster County, 10 Westbrook Ln., Kingston, NY 12401 no later than Friday, May 6th. To receive an entry form, contact Jennifer Burkins, 4-H Youth Development Program Secretary, 340-3990. For more information about the tournament, please call volunteer chairperson, Betty Burgher, 845-399-2809.
