4-H Community Service Project Seeks Donations for Annual Holiday Gift Jars

Gift Jars to be donated to families in need over the holiday season

Cornell Cooperative Extension of Ulster County's 4-H Mutt Masters and Teen Council 4-H Clubs will be putting together Gift Jars filled with ingredients needed to prepare holiday cookies, brownies, soups and snacks for their annual holiday gift jar project. The gift jars will be placed in a basket along with a turkey, ham and other holiday feast items and delivered to several Ulster County families in need over the holiday season.

Donations of new or used clean quart size mason jars, flour, sugar, brown sugar, crisped rice, brownie mixes and other dry ingredients are needed to complete this project. All donations must be delivered to Cornell Cooperative Extension of Ulster County's office at 10 Westbrook Lane in Kingston no later than Monday, December 3. For a complete listing of ingredients needed call Jenny Burkins at 845-340-3990 for more information.
