

Kingston High Graduate Receives Dominic Parise Master Gardener Scholarship

Cornell Cooperative Extension of Ulster County Master Gardener Program has announced this years recipient for the 2007 Dominic Parise Master Gardener Scholarship. This years recipient is Loralee Reidy. Ms. Reidy is a 2007 Kingston High School Graduate, and is planning to attend the State University of New York at Syracuse Environmental Science and Forestry program majoring in Animal Behavior Biology. She is a longtime Ulster County 4-H member and holds several awards for her outstanding efforts in 4-H.

The Ulster County Master Gardener Program consists of a group of trained volunteers who help educate and assist the community in a variety of horticulture projects. The Dominic Parise Master Gardener Scholarship is a $250.00 scholarship and is open to any college or college bound student in Ulster County pursuing a horticulture, agriculture or environmental biology degree. It was established in honor of former Horticultural Assistant, Dominic Parise, who played a critical role in revitalizing the program in Ulster County.
