4-H Snack Bar Serving Up Healthy Snacks at Ulster County Fair

The Ulster County 4-H Snack Bar will be serving up nutritious snacks like fresh local corn, melon cups, apples, bananas, carrots and more at economical prices to fair goers once again at this year's Ulster County Fair. The snack bar is located in the Jane W. Barley Memorial Youth Building located in the center of the fair grounds. Free drink coupons will be available each day while supplies last from our 4-H All Stars who will be in the 4-H animal barns. All proceeds from the 4-H Snack Bar go to the Ulster County 4-H Youth Program. Snack Bar hours are Tuesday through Saturday 10:00am to 9:00pm and Sunday 10:00am to 6:00pm.

The Ulster County Fair is located on Libertyville Road in New Paltz and opens Tuesday, July 29 and continues through Sunday, August 3.

Those interested in attending the New York State Fair in Syracuse which takes place Thursday, August 21 through Monday, September 1, can visit the booth located next to the 4-H Snack Bar for discounted tickets and reduced price ride passes.

Eat healthy, save money and support one of the oldest youth organizations in the United States. Stop into the 4-H Snack Bar while at the fair.
