SAVE MONEY! Learn How To Reduce Energy Cost in Your Home at FREE Workshop in New Paltz

The temperature is dropping as the price to heat your home is rising and there is no better time than now to gain tips on how to weatherize your home and reduce your heating and electric bills.

Cornell Cooperative Extension of Ulster County will be hosting Save Energy, Save Dollars a FREE Weatherization and Energy Savings Workshop designed to help people reduce their electric and heating bills resulting in significant savings year round. The workshop will be Wednesday, December 10, 2008 from 6:00pm to 7:30pm at the Jewish Community Center, located at 30 North Chestnut Street in New Paltz.

All pre-registered attendees ages 18 and up will receive a FREE Energy Saving Gift Pack. The session is free and open to the public. Participants will learn about reducing their heating and electric bills with low cost, no cost energy conservation methods, and easy to use weatherization and energy saving information for homeowners and renters alike.

Pre-registration is required. Call Barbara Grumberg, 845-340-3990 to reserve a seat or email: bag23@cornell.edu
