Gripe and Wine Fall Session Professional Equine Community Event Comes to Pine Bush

This event has been organized to network as many professional horse facilities as possible from Orange and Ulster Counties to share, identify and address issues that are facing the equine industry in our communities. The session will take place at Baldwin Vineyards located at 176 Hardenburgh Road in Pine Bush, NY on Monday, November 10 at 7:00pm. Pre-registration is encouraged no later than Monday, November 3. Admission is free.

All concerns related to horsemanship, husbandry, legal, municipal, labor, etc. will be introduced, discussed and targeted for resolution through the services that may be offered through Cornell Cooperative Extension and its collaborative organizations. Open to all horse facility professionals including; owners, managers, trainers and drivers, regardless of breed, discipline, age or gender of your horse.

Light snacks and refreshments will be available. This free event is sponsored by Heritage Feed and Supply of Bullville and supported by Whinnies and Knickers Tack Shop, The Painted Pony and Ivy Rock Farms. CCE Equine and Livestock Educator, Audrey Reith, will serve as the program facilitator.

For more information or to pre-register call 845-344-1234 or email cah94@cornell.edu
