Win a 2009 Dodge Journey at the Tenth Annual 4-H Golf Classic and help raise Money for One of the Oldest Youth Organizations in the Country

Only a few openings left for this Great Event!

Cornell Cooperative Extension of Ulster County hopes to see you out on the links when it holds its tenth annual 4- H Golf Classic on Thursday, May 15, 2008 at Apple Greens Golf Course in Clintondale, New York. This outing is for everyone...it'll be a great day for golf, food and fun while helping to raise money for the oldest youth organization in the United States. Registration begins at 7:30 a.m. The four-person scramble with a shotgun start will begin at 9:00 a.m. The $100.00 entry fee includes 18 holes of golf with a cart, continental breakfast, snacks on the course, and an awards luncheon following the tournament.

There will be a Hole in One competition where participants will have the chance to win a brand new 2009 Dodge Journey courtesy of Begnal Motors of Kingston as well as several great prizes awarded for Longest Drive Mens & Womens; Closest to the Pin; team prizes for first, second and third place and much more. The money raised by this tournament goes directly to 4-H youth and leadership.

Ulster County 4-H Youth Development reaches over 1,000 young people through programs, field trips and workshops spanning a wide spectrum of interests. 4-H programs help youth develop valuable citizenship and life skills and encourage them to value and practice service to others thereby developing leaders and independent thinkers. Last year, over 450 youngsters, aged 5 to 19 participated in 42 different 4-H Clubs with over 170 of them demonstrating their knowledge, leadership, communication and other valuable life skills at the Ulster County Fair.

All entry forms and fees must be received at Cornell Cooperative Extension of Ulster County, 10 Westbrook Lane, Kingston, NY 12401 no later than Friday, May 12. To receive an entry form, contact Jennifer Burkins, 4-H Youth Development Program Secretary, 340-3990 or visit our website: <http://counties.cce.cornell.edu/ulster>. For more information about the tournament including tee sponsorship information, please call volunteer chairperson, Betty Burgher, 845-399-2809.
