11th Annual 4-H Golf Classic Tees off in May

Cornell Cooperative Extension of Ulster County hopes to see you out on the links when they hold the 11th annual 4-H Golf Classic on Thursday, May 14, 2009 at Apple Greens Golf Course in Clintondale, New York. This outing is for everyone...it'll be a great day for golf, food and fun while helping to raise money for the oldest youth organization in the United States. Registration begins at 7:30 a.m. The four-person scramble with a shotgun start will begin at 9:00 a.m. The $100.00 entry fee includes 18 holes of golf with a cart, continental breakfast, snacks on the course, and an awards luncheon following the tournament. There will be a Hole in One competition featuring a brand new 2009 Jeep provided by Begnal Motors and prizes awarded for Longest Drive Mens & Womens; Closest to the Pin; team prizes for first, second and third place and much more. The money raised by this tournament goes directly to 4-H youth and leadership.

Ulster County 4-H Youth Development reaches over 1,000 young people through programs, field trips and workshops spanning a wide spectrum of interests. 4-H programs help youth develop valuable citizenship and life skills and encourage them to value and practice service to others thereby developing leaders and independent thinkers. Last year, over 350 youngsters, aged 5 to 19 participated in 33 different 4-H Clubs with over 130 of them demonstrating their knowledge, leadership, communication and other valuable life skills at the Ulster County Fair.

For more information about the tournament including tee sponsorship information, please call volunteer chairperson, Betty Burgher, 845-399-2809.
