4-H Snack Bar Offering a Healthy Menu at the Ulster County Fair

The Ulster County 4-H Snack Bar will be serving up nutritious snacks like fresh locally grown corn on the cob, fruit cups, oranges, bananas, carrots and more at great family prices to fair goers once again at this years Ulster County Fair. Stop in and ask about our $5 Meal, which includes an all beef hot dog, corn on the cob, dessert choice and a drink!

The snack bar is located in the Jane W. Barley Memorial Youth Building located in the center of the fair grounds. Snack Bar hours are Tuesday through Saturday 10:00am to 9:00pm and Sunday 10:00am to 6:00pm.

Free drink coupons will be handed out daily by members of the 4-H Youth Program while supplies last and from our 4-H All Stars located in the 4-H animal barns. All proceeds from the 4-H Snack Bar go to the Ulster County 4-H Youth Development Program.

The Ulster County Fair is located on Libertyville Road in New Paltz and opens Tuesday, July 28 and continues through Sunday, August 2.

Eat healthy, save money and support one of the oldest youth organizations in the United States. Stop into the 4-H Snack Bar while at the fair.
