CCEUC Announce New Staff Member and Staff Member Promotion

Danielle Garris of Kingston, NY has been employed with Cornell Cooperative Extension Ulster County as a Nutrition Educator since December 2008. Danielle coordinated the Healthy Nutrition Habits group as well as educated individuals in their homes. She has been in the Human Service field for over ten years and graduated from SUNY Ulster in May 2009. Recently, she received a promotion to the Relatives as Parents Program as the RAPP Coordinator. RAPP provides support, education and referral to relative caregivers residing in Ulster County.

Don Doyle of West Hurley, NY has joined Cornell Cooperative Extension of Ulster County as a home energy and financial counseling educator. Don continues to work in the local banking community where his 35 years of experience in retail banking, commercial and residential lending affords him the experience and tools to work with clients through personal and family financial counseling seminars as well as home energy seminars open to all Ulster County residents.
