Cornell Cooperative Extension Ulster County to Host Their Annual Dinner & Silent Auction

Join Cornell Cooperative Extension of Ulster County (CCEUC) and the Ulster County Farm Bureau as they host an evening of celebration with fine food and top notch entertainment for their annual dinner and silent auction at the beautiful Twin Lakes Resort located 198 Heritage Drive in Hurley on Friday, November 13, at 6:00pm.

Each year Cooperative Extension recognizes individuals for their countless hours of volunteering and dedication to select programs in our community. This years Friends of Extension honorees are Phillies Bridge Farm, Peggy Lapp, Chester Karwatowski, Lucky C Stables, Inc. and SUNY Ulster. The dinner and auction is a fund raiser to help CCEUC continue to bring beneficial community programming to Ulster County. The silent auction will feature services and products showcasing businesses throughout Ulster County.

The cost is $35 per person and will include appetizers, a dinner buffet, dessert, coffee and tea and a live musical performance by Rich Hines and the Hillbilly Drifters. There will be a cash bar available.
