Cornell Cooperative Extension Ulster County Recipient of Wine Trail Event Donation

Cornell Cooperative Extension of Ulster County (CCEUC) is pleased to announce that they were the recipient of a donation from the Shawangunk Wine Trail in the amount of $1,593 on Tuesday, May 18, 2010.

The donation was a portion of proceeds collected from ticket sales for the Pasta Primo Vino event which was held on April 17 and 18, 2010. Each year the Shawangunk Wine Trail hosts an event that involves several different wineries located throughout Ulster and Orange Counties. The event offers wine enthusiasts the opportunity to taste wine at the different wineries on the Shawangunk Wine Trail. In addition to tastings, each winery served a creative pasta dish to participants.

“Traditionally in the past, the Trail has donated proceeds from this event to a Not for Profit. This year we are bringing back this tradition,” said Matt Spaccarelli, President of the Shawangunk Wine Trail. “CCEUC assists the wineries throughout the year with programs for winemakers and vineyard management and this is a way we can give back.”
