Are you into gardening? Cornell Cooperative Extension of Ulster County's Master Gardeners will be hosting FREE Garden Talks at the Ulster County Fair located on Libertyville Road in New Paltz each day at 1:30pm beginning Wednesday, August 4. The Horticulture Building, located near the racing pigs, will be loaded with locally grown award winning flowers and fruits. The talks are presented by Master Gardeners and will cover various topics pertaining to gardening.

In addition to the Garden Talks, the Master Gardeners will provide fair-goers with state of the art gardening knowledge and information regarding the Master Gardener Program at the popular "Ask the Master Gardener" table, also located in the Horticulture Building.

Garden Talk Schedule:

WEDNESDAY: Five Gardening Problems
THURSDAY: Dealing with Deer
FRIDAY: Dirt Cheap Frugal Gardening
SATURDAY: Home Vegetable Garden
SUNDAY: The Master Gardeners Program

Master Gardeners are trained volunteers who provide the public with gardening programs and activities that draw on the horticulture research and experience of Cornell University. It is this tie to Cornell that provides Master Gardeners with state of the art gardening knowledge to provide to the community.

The Ulster County Fair opens Tuesday, August 3 and continues through Sunday, August 8.
