SAVE MONEY! Learn How To Reduce Heating & Electric Costs in Your Home at FREE Workshop Coming to New Paltz

It's bitter cold outside and the cost to heat your home continues to rise, and there is no better time than now to gain tips on how to weatherize your home and reduce your heating and electric bills. So if you're interested in saving hundreds of dollars each year on your energy bill, then this workshop is for you!

Cornell Cooperative Extension of Ulster County will be hosting "Save Energy, Save Dollars" a FREE Weatherization and Energy Savings Workshop designed to help people reduce their electric and heating bills resulting in significant savings year round. The workshop will be January 6, 2011 at the Elting Memorial Library, located at 93 Main Street, New Paltz, N.Y.

Pre-registration is required. All pre-registered attendees ages 18 and up will receive a FREE Energy Saving Gift Pack. The session is FREE and open to the public. Participants will learn about reducing their heating and electric bills with low-cost, no-cost energy conservation methods, and easy to use weatherization and energy saving information for homeowners and renters alike. Space is limited!

Contact Vicki Campbell at 845-340-3990 or email vlc25@cornell.edu to reserve a seat no later than Tuesday, January 4, 2011. The workshop is presented by Arthur Zaczkiewicz, community educator at Cornell Cooperative Extension of Ulster County. He can be reached at aaz25@cornell.edu.
