Take a Journey Around the World at the Renowned Philadelphia Flower Show
Join the Master Gardeners for a bus trip to the biggest and best flower show in the East!

The 2010 Philadelphia International Flower Show to be held February 28 to March 7 at the Pennsylvania Convention Center will take visitors on a globe-trotting, exotic plant-filled adventure. Visitors to this year's worldly presentation of the Flower Show will experience the exciting landscapes and plants of China, Japan, Thailand, England, Scotland, Ireland, Germany, the Caribbean, an artful perspective on the northern polar regions Aurora Borealis and so much more!

Cornell Cooperative Extension of Ulster County's (CCEUC) Master Gardener Program will host a bus trip to The City of Brotherly Love on Thursday, March 4, 2010. The buses will load at 6:45am and leave from the MAC Fitness parking lot located in the Kingston Plaza at 7:00am and will return at approximately 9:30pm. Pre-registration is required before Friday, February 26, 2010. The cost is $65 per person which includes transportation and ticket to the show. No refunds.

Passport to the World is a grand celebration of the world's flowers and gardens and an appropriate debut for the newly renamed Philadelphia International Flower Show, the oldest and largest indoor show of its kind.

For more information or to pre-register call Dona Crawford at 845-340-3990. A registration form can also be downloaded from our website at www.cceulster.org click on Event Registration Forms.
